

ART of - PRESS RELEASE

May 1st 2019 - for immediate release

Over 1500 dancers from all over the world come to take part in the ART of Ballet Intensives in the last 6 years.

Between May 1st and may 5th 2019, over a 50 young ballet dancers will make their way to Tokyo, Japan to take part in the first annual ART of Ballet Intensive. The course is presented with the support of world renowned choreographer William Forsythe, in partnership with the Prix de Lausanne.

Founded in 2012, ART of has brought high level dance courses to over 1500 students all over world.

For the duration of the course, aspiring dancers have the opportunity to work with principal dancers and ballet masters from professional companies in both classical and contemporary repertoire.

The ART of Ballet Intensive is truly unique, directly linking classical and contemporary work needed for today's professionals. Students will not only receive ballet, repertoire, and pointe classes, but will also have the opportunity to learn Forsythe repertoire, Forsythe improvisation, and receive workshops and master classes from today's leading choreographers.

The ART of is the partner Summer School of the Prix de Lausanne. The collaboration with this internationally renowned Swiss institution is reflected in ART of teachers, many of whom are current or former jury members of the Prix de Lausanne.

Thanks to ART of, students have become more versatile dancers, and alumni of the course are employed in ballet companies around the world.

Teachers of the ART of Ballet Intensive TOKYO 2019 include:

- Elena Vostrotina: Principal Dancer at the Zurich Ballet; International Guest Principal Dancer
- Anna Urban- Polikarpova: Ballet Teacher at the Hamburg Ballet School, Principal Dancer
- Ana Catalina Roman: Ballet Master & Coach for William Forsythe Improvisation and Repertoire
- Patrick Rump: Sport Scientist; Director of GJUUM
- Oleg Klymyuk: Director of ART of; Guest Ballet Master

More information about the ART of Ballet Intensive TOKYO 2019 can be found on our website at <https://tokyo.art-of.net>

FOR THE REDACTION:

For additional information and photos please contact:

Oleg Klymyuk

contact@art-of.net

+49 170 271 93 87

+41 768 275 910

ART of Ballet Intensive TOKYO 2019

1st – 5th May 2019

STUDIO MAJOR

〒153-0051 東京都目黒区上目黒3-6-18

TYビル 8階 9階